PROSPECTUS OF THE "NATIONAL MON-

A weekly journal to be published in Washington, under the sunction of the Washington National Monument Society. JAMES C. PICKETT, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

JAMES C. PICKETT, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

The Monument is intended to be a literary, agricultural, and miscellaneous paper. It will contain selections of the literature of the day—the best that can be found in American and English publications: interesting scientific articles embracing mechanics; foreign and domestic news; a synopsis of the proceedings of Congress, and every thing that such a journal might be expected to contain, with the exception of party politics, which will be at all times most chorously excluded.

The Unument will be published for the express and the sole purpose of aiding in the erection of the noble that such a journal might be expected to contain, with the exception of party politics, which will be at all times most ricorously excluded.

The Monument will be published for the express and the sole purpose of aiding in the crection of the noble solution now rising on the banks of the Potomac, in honor of the Father of his Country, and which every one who venerates the name of Washinston; would rejoice to see completed. After disducting out of the subscription the expenses of the journal proposed to be published, the remaining fands will be faithfully applied, and without reserve, to the purpose indicated. The aid, therefore, of all who are willing to contribute to so patriotic an object, and one so entirely national, is extractly requested by subscribing to the Monument, a valuable journal at a low price may be obtained, while it will be doing something, at the same time, towards completing that majestic memorial of the Nation's gratitude.

The Board of Managers excourmend Mr. Pickett, formerly Fourth Auditor of the Trassury and Charge d'Affairs to Pera, who proposes to edit and publish the Monument journal, as one well qualified to perform the duties of editor, and to conduct the paper faithfully, and satisfactority to the subscribers. They assure their follow-citizens that this enterprise is not a speculation got up for individual emolument. Mr. Pickett will make the experiment with his own means and at his own risk; if successful, he will receive nothing more, and he asks nothing more, than a very moderate compensation for his services. Not one dollar, therefore, of the direct subscription to the erection of the Monument will be, in any event, applied to the support of the paper, nor the Society in any manner held pocuniarily responsible.

To give the public an idea of what may be done with the journal it is proposed to publish, it may be established, must wish it to succeed, it is hoped that they will contribute to its success by publishing this proquested to act as agents in obtaining subscriptions, th on the tollowing terms: a copies for 30; a copies, 315; &c.

Those who are disposed to patronise the Monument are requested to forward their names to the General Agent, without delay. The first number will be published early in May; and the second on the second day of August, and weekly thereafter; time being allowed for the Prospectus to be circulated, and for the agents to make returns, all atheribers will be contributors to the Monun itself, their names will be published in the paper. Wassington, April 23, 1851.

Austin's Magic Freezer,

Through in six minutes. For the preparation of lee Creams, Water Ices, &c.—Patented September 19, 1848.

tember 19, 1848.

THE distinguising merits of this Apparatus are—

Int. The astonishing rapidity of the process, surpassing belief—hence the name.

2d. The Cream during the progress of freezing becomes charged with atmospheric air, by which it nearly doubles in bulk, and obtains that peculiar smoothness, lightness, and delicacy of flavor, for which the Ice Cream of our best Confectioners is so highly prized.

3d. It does not require a tenth part of the labor that the common Freezer does.

4th. It does fit work better, producing a better article, in every respect, than by any other mode.

5th. There is a considerable saving in Ice, as the tub needs no replenishing during the operation.

The amexed testimonial from the Proprietor of the Eutaw House will put to rost all doubt.

"Having witnessed the process of freezing Ice Cream in Austin's Magic Freezer, two quarts of cream having been frozen in the incred, ble short time of six minutes, I cheerfully recommend it to the public."

"This is to certify, that during the summer of 1848, I used one of Austin's Patent lee Cream Freezers of the largest size, (10 gallons,) making from 10 to 80 gailon-per day during the season: and so far as regards expedition and power, I consider it decidedly the best freezer now in use, as I have had with it no difficulty in making ten gallons of superior quality lee Cream from five of plain Cream, in thirty minutes from the time I commenced working it.

Newark Academy.

By a late re-organization of this department of Delaware College, the Board of Trustee have taken measures to place it upon a new and improved foundation, and to endow it with advantages possessed by few similar institutions in the country. The Academy, heretofore merged in the College, and of course subjected to all the evils which have been found to attend the smalgamation of the two departments in the same building, and under the same government, now enjoys the privilege of a separate establishment, without losing those which result from its relation to the College proper.

A large and elegant edities, with all the necessary fixitizes of a complete boarding establishment, has been cructed and furnished, in which the students of the Academy board, under the himmediate charge of the Principal and his Assistants, and all its exercises are conducted on a system of its own, unfinterrupted by the interests or operations of the other department. The furnitures of the study-rooms and dormitorias has been chosen with peculiar reference to comfort and convenience for study: and no expertes has been spared in providing the apparatuncessary to render the mean a of instruction complete; giving to Newark Academy facilities for private study and comfortable accommodation of students, fully equal to those affordid by many of our on leges.

From its intimate relation to the College, students of the Academy only many of our on leges.

with the use of appropriate instruments. Lectures on Nature! Philosophy and Chemistry and the limit and the limit and principle specific portions of the foods. The uniform healthfulness of the locaflon may be inferred from the fact that, since the establishment of the school, about twenty-eight rears, vary few cases of harfand indisposition have occurred among the people and not a single death either here, or from dispose contracted with here.

The course of instruction includes, beside, the ordinary English branches, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Physiology, History, Rhetoric, the various branches of Matthematics, and the latin, direct, and French languages. Particular attention is paid to the higher Mathematics and their application to Mechanics and engineering; the latter and Surveying are taught practically by field opparations with the use of appropriate instruments. Locatres on Nature! Philosophy and Chemistry, in which all the important principles are illustrated by experiments, are regularly delivered before the students.

As the object is to make the instruction as thorough and practical as possible, no expense has been sparred in providing suitable apparatus. It is believed that, in this respect, the Institution will compare favorably with any similar one in the country. A carefully selected library of more than one thousand volumes, containing works on the various branches of Literature and Science, furnisher ample reading matter; while a Laboratory, fully supplies with apparatus and tests, contains all that is necessary for practical instruction in Chemical Manipulation.

The school year commenced on the third Second-day (Monday) of the Ninth month, (September.) and is divided into four quarters of eleven weeks each, leaving a vacation of two months, from about the middle of the Seventimonth (July).

Mr. JAS. L. HAMHLTON—DEAR SIR: Although the number and respectability of the testimonials of which you are already in possession, as to the efficacy of your Medicine, "THE GIEAT VA. REMEDY," in the disease which it is designed to cure, are sufficient, in my opinion to establish its reputation, and secure for it such patronages will adequately reward you for the discovery of so line timable a Medicine—yet the great benefit which I have derived from its use, and the salutary effects which I have derived from its use, and the salutary effects which I have derived from its use, and the salutary effects which I have derived from its use, and the salutary effects which I have derived from the use as you may think proper to make of it, this formal acknowledgment of its sanitary virtue-My own case was Dyspepsia of long duration, and very successated in its character. manifested by an almost total destruction of the digestive functions, great deadlify, ner yourness, emaciation, and impaired appetite, with pain and a burning sensation in the left side of the chest, palpitation of the heart, vertigo and congestion in the head and many other symptoms indicative of the worst type of the disease, by the use of three or four bottles of your preparation, been entirely relieved. The cases of my friends in which your Medicine was taken, were Dyspepsia, Chronic Headache, and Sore Throat, in all of which it prove efficacious, after the trial of a vast number of other remeties without benefit. Your medicine is as pleasant, to the taste as a cordial, and in my experience corrects all de rangement of the stomach, restores the wasted or enfeeble, energyies of the digestive organs, and imparts strength and rearnimation to the whole system.

Very respectfully, yours, &c.,

58 Yolumes, with a complete Index to the first 47 Volumes.

Since volume 39 of this series, The English Common Law Reports have been reprinted in full. With volume 44, we commenced binding each English volume separately, instead of, as formerly, two English in one American volume.

Price—For the first 43 vols., $3.60 per vol.

For the successing, 2.50 "

The reputation which these Reports maintain in England and in the United States is known to all the Profession. The low price at which they are offered, compared with the rates of some of the principal American Reports of even inferior merit, recommends them particularly to the attention of those purchasing Libraries.

nt Exchequer Reports. In my judgment they recent Exchequer Reports. In my judgment they are not excelled by any cottemporaneous Reports, in learning, sbility, or general utility and interest. The cases decided are discussed with great care, and expounded with uncon mon force. I scarcely know of any volumes which I deem of more importance or value for a Professional Library.

JOSEPH STORY.

Gentlemen: Your letter of the 24th has been received in which you ask my opinion as to the value of the Euclish Exchequer Reports, from Price downwards to thisme, to an American Lawyer, and as to the expediency or reprinting them in this country. Of the high value of these Reports, both on the Pleas and Equity sides of the Court, I have not the least doubt—the decisions of this Court for the last fifteen or twenty years, both at Equity and in Common Law, being entitled to equal respect with any others in England. I should think an American Lawyer's Library essentially incomplete without them.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully yours, SIMON GREENLEAF.

FURNISHING MAIL LOCKS AND KEYS.

Post OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

March 14, 1851.

I T being desirable to substitute locks and keys of some other kind for those now in use for the mail service of the United States, specimen locks and keys, with processle to formish the same, will be received and considered at the Post Office Department until the first day of July next. The different locks will be submitted to a commission for examination and report. Upon this report, contracts will, as soon as practicable, be entered into for fursishing such locks and keys for four years, with the right on the part of the Postmuter General, for the time being, o extend and continue the contract in force for an addition o extend and continue the contract in force for an addi-ional term of four years, by giving to the contractor a written notice to that effect, not more than nine nor less han six months before the termination of the first term artiten notice to that effect, not more than nine nor less ban six months before the termination of the first term of four years.

With a view of procuring the best lock at the lowest crice, no kind of lock is prescribed as a standard, the Described not have been successful to the historial state that a lock suitable for the mail service should possess the following qualities, viz. durability, uniformity, lightness, and strength. For the purpose of displacing simultaneously all the anal locks and keys now in use, about thirty thousand new locks and twenty thousand keys adapted thereto will be required to be furnished by the contractor within seven months after the contract shall have been entered into: afterwards the annual supply will depend on the duraction of the locks and keys adopted, as well as the increase of the mail service; but it will probably never exceed in amount three thousand of the former and one thousand of the latter.

No lock will be considered if it be like any already in general use; nor will any one with whom the contract may be made be allowed to make, sell, or formish, any lock or key similar to those contracted for for any other purpose or use than that of the Post office bepartment.

The kind of lock adopted must be patented, and the paentee will be required, on entering into contract, to make an assignment of his patent for the exclusive use and benefit of the Department, if the Postmister General shall deem such requirement essential to the interests of the service. In case of the failure of the contract any time to folial faithfully the terms and conditions of his contract, the Postmister General shall have the right besides a resort to the penal remedy hereinafter mentioned, to annul said contract, and to contract any with my other party or parties as he may see fit, for furnishin; imilar locks and keys.

In deelding upon the proposals and specimens offered he Postmaster General may deem it expedient to select similar locks and keys.

In deciding upon the proposals and specimens offered, the Postmaster General may deem it expedient to select for the through mails the lock of one bidder, and for the way mails that of another. He reserves, therefore, the right of contracting with different individuals for such different kinds of locks as he may select, and also the right to reject all the specimens and proposals, if he shall deem that course for the Interest of the Department. The party or parties contracting will be required to give bond with ample security, in the sum of thirty thousand dollars, for a faithful performance of the contract. The contract of the due and proper in spection of the locks and keys, and also for guardin sgainst their passing into improper hands; the terms of these provisions to be arranged between the Department and the successful bidder, if a bid should be accepted.

No application will be considered if not accompanie with satisfactory evidence of the trustworthy character; the bidder, and of his shillity to fulfil the contract.

Latter from the Hon. Thomas H. Benton.

Washington Ciry, April 20, 1849.

Mr. Freeman Hunt—Nir; I owe you many thanks for the opportunities I have had to read the Herelanuth Magazine, and have found it in resilty to be a negative, and that well replenished, of all the useful matter which the litle would imply, and presented with a fullness and clearness which delights while it instructs. It is, in fact, a merchant's magazine in the large acceptation of the term—merchants who go between mations, whose large operations bring many dejariments of knowledge, and a view of the state of the world, into daily requisition. But it is not the great merchant only, but the one of more modest, but, nevertheless, of most useful operations—the merchant of the interior also—who will find this magazine to abound with the information the pursuit of his lusiness and the elevation of the mercantile character requires. Not is its utility at all confined to merchants, but extends to the legislator and diplematist, and to all who are charged with managing the affairs of the nation. For myself, I have found it most useful to me in my senatorial labors, and have been in the habit for many years of carefully consulting it.

Very respectfully, sir, your obedient servant, THOMAS H. BENTON.

of the various forms of disease, and constructed on a rate not inferior to those of any other establishment in this country.

An collightened public sentiment has everywhere repudated a reckless use of drugs in the treatment of disease; while intelerable sufferings and broken constitutions have imperatively demanded "Heform." A return from a wide and fatal departure from the simplicity of Nature's laws is called for, alike by a rational love of happiness and the deplorable exigencies of our condition. Hydrogathy, or a scientific use of water as a restorative and curative agent, is a practical substitution of a simple and remarkably efficacious mode of caring the sick: for that system of drugging, depleting, and cauterizing, which, in obtaining the mastery over disease, too frequently places the patient beyond the reach of further amorpance. The success of the various Water Cure establishments in this country, to say nothing of any other, has fully confirmed the hopes of the early discoverers and promugators of the great truth upon which the system is founded, and renders verbal communications unorcessary. It is deemed sufficient to early that the "Cold Spring Water Cure" will compare favorably with any of the well-conducted establishments of a similar character, and will be found equal to the best, as regards the order, convenience, and desirableness of its arrangements. The institution is now open for the reception of patients, and in full operation. tion of patients, and in full operation.
